Course Description:

This selective class is a year long class and designed for students to explore the Chinese language and culture. The purpose for this class is to help students understand and appreciate diverse world cultures. Students will learn the Four World Language Skills: communication, culture, connections, and comparisons through a friendly instructional approach.

Regarding the language itself, students will learn the Chinese phonetic system, basic vocabulary words and some Chinese characters. Students will also be introduced to different aspects of Chinese culture such as festivals, food, clothes, living topics. Upon successfully completing the course, students are expected to be able to simply introduce themselves in the target language.
